—Question—

How does a new name in audiobook publishing make inroads into an established library market?

—Answer—

By producing not just better audiobooks, but audiobooks that are shockingly superior to the rest of the field.

Titles We Know Your Patrons Love

Timeless classics that have been cherished by library patrons for a hundred years, and will be cherished by patrons a hundred years from now. Jane Austen, Mark Twain, Charles Dickens, H.G. Wells. Need we go on?

Then discover the next generation of classic authors in our Contemporary Titles listing. You may be seeing some of them for the first time here, but our children and grandchildren will learn about them in future college literature classes.

Superb Audio Production Quality

These literary masterpieces are presented to your listeners by highly polished, engaging, readers. Title openings and disc changeovers are framed in original music, appropriately selected for each title. Your patrons will know that their enjoyment is our—and your—top priority. All CHP Library titles are unabridged CD-audio format.

Packaging Designed for Libraries

CHP audiobooks are packaged with high-volume library traffic in mind from the start. Our ultra-durable MediaSAFE Secure Latch Library Cases are made with strong injection molded polypropylene with a sturdy two-ring spine to accommodate replaceable CD pages. A latch on the front keeps the case securely closed during transportation as well as the library return drop.

Lifetime Replacement

Cherry Hill Publishing is so confident in the durability of our Library format audiobooks that we will replace yours at no charge if they are ever lost or damaged.

At the Gates of Walhalla* / Justin Forge

Read by the Author

Kurt Sorensen's life as a U.S. Border Patrol Officer takes a devastating turn when his wife and twins are killed in an apparently random attack in Juarez. Kurt leaves the painful memories behind and returns to his peaceful, stunningly beautiful hometown, North Walhalla, Manitoba. Instead of finding peace and tranquility, Kurt is swept up in a vortex of evil that seems to have followed him northward. Trying to protect Walhalla from the infiltration of death and drugs, Kurt battles an infamous drug lord, only to be shocked at the revelation of the drug gang's silent business partner. Kurt draws on his ancestral Viking spirit to recruit a secret militia to right the wrongs in society, but the militia, the drug lord and an ominous third party are on collision courses, which intersect at the gates of Viking Heaven—Walhalla.

A New World: CHAOS* / John O'Brien

Read by Mark Gagliardi

Jack, an ex-special operations pilot and soldier is one of the few left to struggle through the desolation left in the aftermath; seeking to survive as a new ferocious species emerges from the rubble, hungry and unrelenting. Will his special forces training be enough? Will he be able to keep his children safe and guide the few survivors through perils that now roam the world they once knew? Or will the hordes that now own the night prevail, forever removing the last of mankind from existence?

Running Time: 494 minutes; Retail Price: $39.95

A New World: RETURN* / John O'Brien

Read by Mark Gagliardi

Jack Walker journeyed halfway around the world and completed his daring rescue. He must now return home, traversing a world filled with endless hordes of night runners; the genetically altered, ferocious species that now inhabit the dark recesses left over from the demise of mankind and now dominate the planet. It is through this world that Jack must use his special forces training to lead a small group of survivors back home to where there is the faint hope of sanctuary. This gripping, action-packed tale tells Jack's story of survival in a post-apocalyptic world filled with peril.

Aberration* / Lisa Regan

Read by Laura Jennings

FBI analyst Kassidy Bishop is assigned to the "For You" killer's task force after a series of sadistic murders bearing the same signature arise in different parts of the country. The homicides are both calculated and savage, occurring in different states, but bearing the same signature: the words "for you" scribbled at each crime scene. The case chills Kassidy, bringing back memories of her own encounter with a violent criminal five years earlier. Kassidy's mentor, legendary agent Talia "The Confessor" Crossen knows the task force assignment is Kassidy's chance to prove to her colleagues that she belongs in the Behavior Analysis Unit. The stakes rise when the task force links the killer's signature to Kassidy.

Beast of the Field* / Peter Jordan Drake

Read by James Conlan

Based on a true story. In 1920s Kansas, the mangled body of champion buggy racer Tommy Donnan has been discovered beneath his carriage, dragged to his death by his own horse. His twelve-year-old sister, Millie, does not believe his death was an accident. She wants to know the truth behind the night Tommy died. But Tommy's killer may be closer than Millie would have ever believed and she will have to get to the truth the hard way. The hardest way.

Running Time: 176 minutes; Retail Price: $39.95

Begin With Yes* / Paul S. Boynton

Read by Ed Brian Hutchison

The Law of Attraction meets the Law of Action. The Law of Attraction tells us that whatever we focus our attention on, consciously or not, we attract into our lives. Think happy thoughts, enjoy happy experiences. And vice-versa. Begin with Yes introduces the Law of Action, a principle that reverses the order—and is equally powerful. What we do affects how we think, and the kinds of experiences we have. When we take small, manageable steps, we feel more positive and our lives flow more smoothly. Begin with Yes is all about setting things in motion and opening new doors. In this short, engaging conversation, counselor, mentor, and motivational speaker Paul Boynton maps out a surprisingly easy, logical, and liberating alternate route to a better life.

Running Time: 91 minutes; Retail Price: $19.95

Big Hot Kisses* / J. Hunter Todd

Read by Ed Asner

Big Hot Kisses is a wingy collection of tawdry, “true” tales of lust, sex and passion. So come along on an irreverent, often humorous journey through some everyday “love” stories, where at some point you may surprisingly find yourself confronted with a familiar mirror image called real life.

Running Time: 135 minutes; Retail Price: $19.95

Blackout — Book 3 of the Sam Archer Thriller Series* / Tom Barber

Read by John Sackville

Young counter-terrorist cop Sam Archer arrives for work at the Armed Response Unit expecting a quiet day. But unbeknownst to him, three men have already been killed that morning. The deaths seem random, thousands of miles apart. But they are all connected by a shocking event fifteen years ago. Archer, Chalky and the rest of the Unit suddenly find themselves plunged into a ferocious and violent confrontation against an enemy that is hell-bent on killing ten specific people before the end of the day. As the counter-terrorist unit and the vengeful enemy come up against each other all over the city, Archer and the team soon realize two things: this enemy is more proficient and deadly than any they've ever encountered, and one of their own ARU men is on the extermination list.

Death's White Horses* — Book 3 of the Jeff Trask Thriller Series / Marc Rainer

Read by James Conlan

Federal prosecutor Jeff Trask is back on the case, after a series of drug overdoses places investigators face to face with Los Zetas—the most dangerous of the Mexican drug cartels. What begins as an investigation of local heroin trafficking soon turns into something far more serious. The cartel will do anything to protect its cash flow—including a series of attacks against Trask's team that cement Los Zetas' status as one of the most ruthless criminal organizations of the century. Inspired by actual events from Mexico's cartel wars, Death's White Horses is Marc Rainer's third book featuring federal prosecutor Jeff Trask. While showcasing the challenges faced by law enforcement on both sides of the border, it also highlights the deadly consequences seen on either end of the US-Mexico drug trade.

Honest Sid / Ronald Probst
Read by James Conlan

If you're going to live outside the law, you'd better be honest. This seeming paradox was the operating principle of Sid Probst's life. Guileless and endlessly optimistic, he was known as Honest Sid around his stomping ground of New York's Broadway. Sid wasn't a tough guy, or even a bad guy. He just never had the patience for the "straight" life, grinding out a living at some monotonous desk job. He was the quintessential American dreamer, always sure that the good life was just one big score away, a man who never stopped believing in his own good luck, even when the evidence said otherwise. He had all the tools, he was charming, good-looking, quick-witted and decent, but he had an obsession he couldn't escape.

Horns of the Devil — Book 2 of the Jeff Trask Thriller Series / Marc Rainer
Read by James Conlan

The beheaded body of an ambassador's son is dumped on the curb in front of his father's embassy just blocks from the White House. Federal prosecutor Jeff Trask and an FBI task force are called upon to solve the murder. Their search for the killers leads to the MS-13, a hyper-violent gang from El Salvador, but Trask and his team soon learn that someone else is also tracking their suspects, and with deadly efficiency. When Trask himself becomes a target, he realizes that he is caught in a cross-fire between two of the most ruthless organizations in the western hemisphere. Author Marc Rainer brings more than three decades of investigative and prosecutorial experience to this follow-up to his hit novel Capital Kill.

Housekeeping for the Soul / Sandra Carrington-Smith
Read by Jennifer Vaughn

The first book to combine how-to, self-help and spiritual genres to address the needs of millions of readers as they strive to detach from the Culture of Chaos and embrace a life of balance. It is through this inner harmony and balance that one may then create a meaningful, authentic reality. With a down-to-earth approach, the reader is guided through the process of emotional healing and renewal of spirit through the familiar analogy of housekeeping: cleaning, organizing, and "airing out" our lives, room by room, task by task.

Junkie Love / By Joe Clifford

Read by Timothy McKean

From the cow fields of Connecticut to the streets of San Francisco, Joe Clifford's Junkie Love traverses the lost highways of America, down the rocky roads of mental illness to the dead ends of addiction. Based on Clifford's own harrowing experience with drugs as a rock 'n' roll wannabe in the 1990s, the book draws on the best of Kerouac & the Beats, injecting a heavy dose of pulp fiction as it threads a rollicking narrative through a doomed love triangle, lit up by the many strange characters he meets along the way. Part road story, part resurrection tale, Junkie Love finds a way to laugh in one's darkest hour, while never abandoning its heart in search of a home.

The Authoritarians / Bob Altemeyer
Read by the Author

Ever since John W. Dean published his Conservatives Without Conscience in 2006, much interest has been vested in the research of Dr. Bob Altemeyer that was so prominently featured in the book. In CWC, Dean set out to learn why modern conservatives seemed to think and behave in ways diametrically opposite the righteous and moral values they so publicly espoused. What he discovered was an existing body of scientific research tracing back to the cinders of the Holocaust. This research focused on the Authoritarian Personality, which social scientists believe was the enabling element within German society that was so deftly exploited by Adolph Hitler and the Third Reich.

Millions of years ago, a meteorite fell to earth and shattered, revealing a beautiful blue stone. One hundred thousand years ago, a girl named Tall One found the crystal on the African plain, and it formed her destiny--as well as the destiny of generations to come. From ancient Israel to Imperial Rome, medieval England to fifteenth-century Germany, the eighteenth-century Caribbean, and the nineteenth-century American West, the destiny of the stone and the history of the world unfold. Each story is full of the betrayals and obsessions of the human heart, and the quests of the human spirit. In The Blessing Stone, Barbara Wood has both told the intimate details of her characters' lives and created a sense of the epic sweep of human history.

FBI Report on Unidentified Flying Objects* / The Federal Bureau of Investigation
Read by Roger Melin

In 1947, a rash of sightings of Unexplained Flying Objects (UFOs) swept America. Although the newly formed U.S. Air Force was the primary investigator of these sightings, the FBI received many reports and worked for a time with the Air Force to investigate these matters. This release, declassified and made public in response to a U.S. Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, details the FBI's role in investigating UFO reports between 1947 and 1954.

How to Analyze People on Sight* / Elsie Lincoln Benedict
Read by Alicia Kaye

Elsie Lincoln Benedict's How to Analyze People on Sight was received as a serious scientific work of analytic sociology in 1921, but fast forward ninety years and the same words ring hilarious. Apparently well intended at the time, one can only imagine the number of hapless souls that must have trudged forward through life after reading Benedict's masterpiece, certain in their belief that their fate was inescapably governed by the shape of their face or the length of their neck.

Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl* / Harriet Jacobs

Read by Audio Élan

Harriet Jacobs' autobiography, written under the pseudonym Linda Brent, details her experiences as a slave in North Carolina, her escape to freedom in the north, and her ensuing struggles to free her children. The narrative was partly serialized in the New York Tribune, but was discontinued because Jacobs' depictions of the sexual abuse of female slaves were considered too shocking. It was published in book form in 1861.

Peter Pan* / James Matthew Barrie

Ready by Bobbin Beam

Peter Pan was first performed as a play in 1904, and has since become one of the most widely performed and adapted children's stories in the world. It is considered by many to be the only children's play that is also a great work of literature. Peter Pan's success is due in part to a fresh means of storytelling that appeals to both adults and children. While children enjoy the imaginative story and flights of fancy, adults can relate to Peter Pan's desire to forego mature responsibilities and live in the moment.

Pride and Prejudice* / Jane Austen

Read by Helen Lisanti

Charles Bingley, a wealthy young gentleman, has moved into Netherfield Park manor, which causes much excitement in the village of Longbourn, especially among the five unmarried daughters of the Bennet household. Despite many romantic complications, the overall tone of this classic novel is, as Jane Austen described it, "light and bright, and sparkling."

Running Time: 781 Minutes; Retail Price: $29.95

Sense and Sensibility* / Jane Austen

Read by Marion Castle

Sense and Sensibility is a sharply detailed portraiture of the decorum surrounding courtship and the importance of marriage for women in early-nineteenth-century upper-class English society. The story revolves around Elinor and Marianne Dashwood who, as members of the upper class, cannot "work" for a living and must therefore make a suitable marriage to ensure their livelihood.

Running Time: 737 Minutes; Retail Price: $29.95

Siddhartha* / Hermann Hesse

Read by David Cross

Siddhartha conveys a very profound message for all those who seek meaning in their lives. Though set in India, the concerns it addresses are universal—the conflict between mind, body, and spirit. It is a story of a Brahmin boy who follows his heart and ventures out into the world to experience life as a pious Brahmin, a Samana, a rich merchant, a lover, an ordinary ferryman to a father—each life bringing a new awakening, bringing him closer to the truth till he finally is one with Buddha.

The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn* / Mark Twain
Read by Denny Delk

There is no limit to Mark Twain's inventive genius, and The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn must be pronounced the most amusing book he has ever written. The reader's interest is strongly enlisted in the fortunes of two boys and a runaway slave that he follows their adventures with keen curiosity, although his common sense tells him that the incidents are as absurd as they are fantastic. —The San Francisco Chronicle, March 15, 1885.

Running Time: 515 Minutes; Retail Price: $29.95

The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes* / Sir Arthur Conan Doyle
Read by Monroe McBride

Dr. Watson chronicles some of the more interesting detective cases that he and his good friend, Mr. Sherlock Holmes, have encountered during their association. We see the cases unfold as he does, marvelling at the impeccable observations, remarkable insight, and doggedness which Holmes displays as he teases apart the tangled clues. Packaged as twelve distinct cases, by the end of this book your own senses of observation and deductive reasoning should be improved!

Running Time: 675 Minutes; Retail Price: $39.95

The Adventures of Tom Sawyer* / Mark Twain
Read by Ian Lynch

The Adventures of Tom Sawyer, originally published in 1876, was the first novel written on a typewriter. Mark Twain's lively tale of the scrapes and adventures of boyhood is set in St. Petersburg, Missouri, where Tom Sawyer and his friend Huckleberry Finn have the kinds of adventures many boys can imagine: racing bugs during class, impressing girls, especially Becky Thatcher, with fights and stunts in the schoolyard, getting lost in a cave, and playing pirates on the Mississippi River.

Running Time: 433 Minutes; Retail Price: $19.95

The Age of Innocence* / Edith Wharton
Read by Brenda Dayne

Having been born into a life of wealth and privilege, Edith Wharton was part of the small clique of aristocratic families that held sway over New York City's social and cultural life at the turn of the nineteenth century. In The Age of Innocence, Wharton looks back fondly on the life that was enjoyed by the privileged class of the East Coast before the many changes wrought by World War I.

The Blue Lagoon* / H. De Vere Stacpoole

Read by Adrian Praetzelis

Two young children and a galley cook survive a shipwreck in the South Pacific and are stranded on a lush tropical island. The cook, kindly old salt Paddy Button, assumes the responsibility for caring for the children. Paddy eventually dies in a drunken binge and the children are left to survive solely on their resourcefulness and the bounty of their remote paradise. In time, Richard and Emmeline grow into beautiful young adults when strange emotions begin to influence their relationship.

Running Time: 459 Minutes; Retail Price: $19.95

The Call of the Wild* / Jack London

Read by Melanie Haynes

Jack London's Call of the Wild is a beautiful tale of Buck, a house dog torn from the comforts of hearth and home in sunny California and thrust into the unforgiving wild. Through Buck, London takes us on a journey where the shackles of civilization are left behind, leading us to a simultaneously unknown and familiar past. Forgotten senses are awakened and survival is key. The story awakens in us something primal—the desire to be truly free.

Running Time: 210 Minutes; Retail Price: $19.95

The Canterville Ghost* / Oscar Wilde

Read by David Barnes

An amusing chronicle of the tribulations of the Ghost of Canterville Chase when its ancestral halls become the home of Hiram Otis, the American Minister to the Court of St. James. Deftly contrasting the conventional gothic ghost story with the pragmatism of the modern world, Wilde creates a satire of American materialism, a lampoon of traditional British values, and an amusing twist on the traditional gothic horror tale.

Running Time: 86 Minutes; Retail Price: $19.95

The House of Seven Gables* / Nathaniel Hawthorne

Read by Mark Smith

The House of the Seven Gables explores themes of guilt, retribution, and atonement in a New England family and colors the tale with suggestions of the supernatural and witchcraft. An evil house, cursed through the centuries by a man who was hanged for witchcraft, is haunted by the ghosts of its sinful dead and wracked by the fear of its frightened living. Written as a follow-up to The Scarlet Letter, The House of the Seven Gables is truly a masterful blending of the actual and the imaginary.

Running Time: 717 Minutes; Retail Price: $29.95

The Hunchback of Notre Dame* / Victor Hugo

Read by Mark Nelson

Quasimodo, the hunchback bellringer of Notre Dame's cathedral meets a beautiful gypsy dancer, Esmeralda, and falls in love with her. So does Quasimodo's guardian, the archdeacon of the cathedral, and a poor street poet. But Esmeralda is in love with a handsome soldier. When a mob mistakes her for a witch, it's up to Quasimodo to rescue her and claim sanctuary for her in the cathedral.

The Kama Sutra of Vātsyāyana

Read by Rita Sharma

Written by the ancient Indian philosopher Vātsyāyana sometime between the 1st and 6th centuries A.D., The Kama Sutra is literally translated as “Aphorisms on Love.” It is intended as a manual for not only love and intimacy but also a treatise on the politics and customs of relationships between men and women. The Kama Sutra, while sought after for its instruction on sexual positions, is much more than just a guide for lovemaking. Presented here is the classic translation of Sir Richard Francis Burton.

The Lancashire Witches* / William Harrison Ainsworth

Read by Andy Winter

When a Cistercian monk, Borlace Alvetham, is falsely accused of witchcraft and condemned to death by his rival, Brother Paslew, he sells his soul to Satan and escapes. Granted the powers of a warlock, he returns in the guise of Nicholas Demdike to witness Paslew’s execution for treason. Dying, Paslew curses Demdike’s offspring—who become the titular “Lancashire Witches.” Years later, Mother Demdike, a powerful witch, and her clan face rival witches, raise Alizon Devi as their own, and try to corrupt Alizon despite her innocent ways. Ultimately, the story becomes a struggle between Heaven and Hell, with Alizon’s fate hanging in the balance.

The Life and Adventures of Robinson Crusoe* / Daniel Defoe

Read by Mark Smith

Captured by pirates, Robinson Crusoe makes his break in a small boat and undergoes desperate adventures before winning his way back to civilization. Lightning strikes a second time and he is marooned on a small island off South America. Crusoe eventually builds a fort and creates a kingdom for himself by taming animals, gathering fruit, growing crops, and hunting, and spends more than two decades in isolation before acquiring a sidekick—the man Friday.

Running Time: 681 Minutes; Retail Price: $29.95

The Man in the Iron Mask* / Alexandre Dumas

Read by Mark Smith

The Man in the Iron Mask is Alexandre Dumas’ darker, more grown-up aftermath of The Three Musketeers. King Louis XIV has ushered in an era of absolute power, where his word is law and he accepts no dissent. Through his beloved characters of D’Artagnan, Athos, Aramis, and Porthos, Dumas reminded his readers of what they might be missing in their own France. The Man in the Iron Mask climactically concludes the epic adventures of the three Musketeers who, once invincible, meet their final destinies.

Running Time: 1233 Minutes; Retail Price: $39.95

The Metamorphosis* / Franz Kafka

Read by Monroe Clark McBride

As travelling salesman Gregor Samsa awoke one morning from uneasy dreams, he found himself transformed in his bed into a gigantic insect. He was lying on his hard, as it were armor-plated, back and when he lifted his head a little he could see his domelike brown belly divided into stiff arched segments on top of which the bed quilt could hardly stay in place and was about to slide off completely. His numerous legs, which were pitifully thin compared to the rest of his bulk, waved helplessly before his eyes.

Running Time: 159 Minutes; Retail Price: $29.95

The Mysterious Affair at Styles* / Agatha Christie
Read by Judi Pennington

In this first novel by Agatha Christie, she introduces the inimitable Hercule Poirot, who would go on to appear in 33 Christie novels and 54 short stories. The Mysterious Affair at Styles deals with the case of an old woman poisoned with strychnine for her money. Nothing is obvious, however, in the way Christie handles a plot. The story spirals round and round, leading the reader in one direction, then another, convincing the reader that first one character, then another is the guilty party.

Running Time: 384 Minutes; Retail Price: $19.95

The Poor Little Rich Girl* / Eleanore Gates
Read by Susan Umpleby

Gwendolyn's family is rich, but her parents ignore her and she is left to the care of servants who are indifferent. She is lonely and longs for a friend. Her nanny's irresponsibility leads to a tragedy, which brings them to realize the error of their ways and rethink what is important to them.

The Prince and the Pauper* / Mark Twain
Read by James Conlan

In this classic Twain tale, a poor commoner and a young prince each find out how the other half lives. Tom Canty is a young man from a laboring family who bears a striking resemblance to Prince Edward, the son of King Henry VIII and heir to his throne. Tom and Edward meet by chance, and they decide to exchange places briefly as a lark; Edward will get to live as an ordinary boy, and Tom will enjoy the perks of royalty. But the two are separated before they can let everyone in on the joke, and Tom discovers as he pretends to be Prince Edward that the castle is awash in corruption.

The Report on Unidentified Flying Objects* / Captain Edward J. Ruppelt
Read by Roger Melin

"It is well known that ever since the first flying saucer was reported in June 1947 the Air Force has officially said that there is no proof that such a thing as an interplanetary spaceship exists. But what is not well known is that this conclusion is far from being unanimous among the military and their scientific advisers because of the one word, 'proof'; so the UFO investigations continue." —Captain Edward J. Ruppelt, Former Head of the Air Force Project Blue Book, July 1955.

Running Time: 962 Minutes; Retail Price: $39.95

The Rough Riders* / Theodore Roosevelt
Read by Monroe Clark McBride

The Rough Riders (1899) is the story of the First U.S. Volunteer Cavalry, the regiment Theodore Roosevelt led to enduring fame in Cuba during the Spanish-American War. Roosevelt recounts how the regiment was raised from an unusual mixture of hardened southwestern frontiersmen and privileged northeastern college graduates, and how it trained in Texas before sailing southward through the tropic seas toward the unknown. Writing at a time when war could still be seen as a romantic adventure and rich with action, violence, camaraderie, and courage, Roosevelt describes the confusion of fighting in the jungle; the heat, hunger, rain, mud, and malaria that tested his men, and their ultimate triumph on the San Juan Heights.

The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll & Mr. Hyde* / Robert Louis Stevenson

Read by Kristen Hughes

After hearing Mr. Enfield's account of a distressing event involving Edward Hyde, the heir of his friend, Henry Jekyll, John Utterson is convinced that Jekyll's relationship with Hyde is built on something sinister. Utterson's concern for his friend is not unfounded but the reasons aren't quite what he, at first, believes.

Running Time: 167 Minutes; Retail Price: $19.95

The Swiss Family Robinson* / Johann David Wyss

Read by James Conlan

The Swiss Family Robinson has delighted generations of readers with its exciting tale of a family which, though shipwrecked, displays “the right stuff” and builds a charming colony that later, they do not want to leave. Cut off from the companionship of other humans, they use a familiarity with natural history and biology to find the resources to not only survive, but thrive. They domesticate animals, establish a farm, and finally, have a terrifying encounter with natives from a nearby island.

Running Time: 694 Minutes; Retail Price: $29.95

The Time Machine* / H.G. Wells

Read by David McAlister

As H.G. Wells' Time Traveler theorizes, the working class has been pushed underground for so long that it has evolved into a distinct, nocturnal species. The upper class has remained above ground, and their advanced civilization, stocked with amenities, has turned them into weak, lazy, and dependent creatures. But at some point the underground group—the Morlocks—run out of food and are forced to hunt down the Eloi, which it now breeds like cattle.

Running Time: 207 Minutes; Retail Price: $19.95

Tom Swift and the Electronic Hydrolung* / Victor Appleton
Read by Mark Smith

Tom Swift works with the Navy to recover a Jupiter probe missile designed and built by Swift Enterprises when the Brungarians attempt to steal the probe and its scientific data. In a race against time, Tom invents several underwater devices to assist with the recovery and counter the threat of a stealth submarine developed by the Brungarians.

Uncle Tom's Cabin* / Harriet Beecher Stowe
Read by John Greenman

"There are nearly four millions of slaves in the United States; and the question now presents itself to every free born American citizen; what are we to do with them? The abolition party demand their immediate emancipation. Is it practicable, safe, or proper? What would be the consequences? What would be the consequence of turning loose upon ourselves four millions of human beings, to prowl about like wild beasts without restraint, or control, and commit depredations on the white population?" —Excerpted from A Review of Uncle Tom's Cabin, by A. Woodward, M.D., 1853.

Running Time: 1081 Minutes; Retail Price: $39.95

War of the Worlds* / H.G. Wells
Read by Roger Watson

H.G. Wells' War of the Worlds is one of the most terrifying and morally prescient science fiction novels ever penned. Beginning with a series of strange flashes in the distant night sky, the Martian attack initially causes little concern on Earth. Then the destruction erupts—ten massive aliens roam England and destroy with heat rays everything in their path. Very soon mankind finds itself on the brink of extinction.

Running Time: 400 Minutes; Retail Price: $19.95

White Fang* / Jack London
Read by Mark Smith

White Fang is the story of a wolf that comes, after many hardships dealt him by both man and nature, to live a dog's life with a loving master. Published in 1906, White Fang became an immediate commercial success. It continues to be popular a century after its initial publication. In its unblinking portrayals of nature's unforgiving harshness, of humankind's capacity for both shocking brutality and unconditional love, and of the struggle for survival that is common to all life, White Fang is classic London.
